

Christmas Workshops

White House Ceramic Studios

Come celebrate the holiday season with me and clay! I go all out for my holiday workshops. They always get me into the spirit as I decorate the studio and begin my holiday baking. Create holiday themed ceramic pieces out of beautiful stoneware clay. Come unearth your creative spirit and get in the holiday spirit!! Walk away from this experience with gorgeous, one-of-a-kind works of art! Keep for yourself or give to someone special! Your child can participate with or without you and you can participate with our without your child. Very flexible. All skill levels are welcome!
